

Web quest: Egyptian Geography

Follow these instructions to complete this web quest...

- 1) Log into computer, google the following: <http://www.ancientegypt.co.uk/menu.html>
- 2) Click on GEOGRAPHY, click on the map of Egypt to open up the page you want
- 3) Read the page on Geography and open STORY.
- 4) Read the story and click on NEXT (you then decide which way you are going.
- 5) Continue to read and follow the prompts until you are done
- 6) When you have reached the BACK TO HOME PAGE icon, click this option to return to the page you need to complete this assignment.
- 7) Click on EXPLORE, use the drop down menu and click on TERRAIN (have a look)
- 8) Use drop down menu to look at MODERN POLITICAL map. Use map on the back page and label the following sites: Luxor, Aswan, Faiyum, Alexandria, Cairo, Asyut, Abydos and Quena
- 9) Use drop down menu and open GEOGRAPHIC FEATURES. Click on a palm tree (anyone) and answer the following question. WHAT IS AN OASIS? _____
- 10) Click on a blue dot and answer the following question? What did the Nile provide ancient Egyptians with? _____
- 11) Click on the red dot and answer the following question? What did the ancient Egyptians use metals and gold for? _____
- 12) Use the drop down menu and open NATURAL RESOURCES. Answer the following question. What was the three largest types of natural resources used in ancient Egypt? _____
- 13) Use the drop down menu and open ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITES. On your map, label the following: Karnak, Luxor, Giza and Valley of the Kings.
- 14) Go back to google and use Wikipedia and find out one interesting fact about each of the following:
Karnak _____
Luxor _____
Giza _____
Valley of the Kings _____
- 15) If you have time, you can take the CHALLENGE, just for fun and because you love challenges.
- 16) Hand in your answer sheet (this one) with your name and block on top and the map completed (on reverse side)